To Whom It May Concern:

Our experience with T&W has been nothing short of fantastic. We have worked with T&W on the development of three large assisted living communities. Each project continues to deepen our trust in both their expertise and character.

They've consistently been on time, on budget, and a joy to be around. That is saying something in the General Contracting business. We are proud to call T&W Corporation a key development partner and friend. We can't recommend them highly enough.

Sincerely,
