To Whom It May Concern,

As a pastor, I am familiar with the multitude of opportunities available to partner with businesses in our community. A personal connection and reference go a long way to build my confidence in a potential future partner. That is why I am happy to recommend T&W Solutions. The team at T&W Solutions worked hard to serve Realife Church on our new facility. They were diligent in their work, responsive to questions and concerns, transparent with their processes and the end result was a beautiful house of worship. T&W Solutions was a pleasure to work with and handled every step of the process with professionalism and integrity. It is with confidence that I recommend them for all your future building needs.

Thank you for your consideration.

Building the Kingdom,
